CONFLICT TRANSFORMATION: SKILLS TO STAY CURIOUS, CALM, CARING, AND CONNECTED with KIM BRANNON

Kim is the 2020-2024 North Texas Conference Lay Leader and now a Conflict Specialist who is passionate about equipping and accompanying clergy, leaders, and laity as they transform conflict into robust and grace-filled relationships. She holds an MA in Dispute Resolution and Conflict Management from SMU and is certified in mediation and leadership coaching.

OF COURSE I'M NON-ANXIOUS! with REV. KAREN DUNGAN

Karen is the current TIIMSA Board of Directors President, former Iowa Conference District Superintendent and TIIMS with training on Bowen Family Systems Theory. She will share the insights of renown Rabbi Edwin Friedman, PhD, on basic concepts that apply to leadership and practical applications to our own Intentional Interim Ministry work.

GUIDING CONGREGATIONS THROUGH GRIEF with REV. BONNIE OSTEEN

Bonnie is a TIIMSA Lead Trainer, a Texas Conference Staff TIIMS Coordinator since 2015, and has served as a TIIMS in 15 congregations. She is also appointed as Senior Pastor at St. Matthew United Methodist Church, Jacksonville, Texas. She brings an extensive experience of healing through the grieving process with individuals and congregations.
